

FIELD STUDY TOUR

Department: English

Event: Field Study Tour to Ghatagaon, Bhimkund, and Gundichaghai

Date: 09.12.2022

A field study tour was organised by the Department of English to acquaint the students of the department with the various aspects of Romantic writings and transcription of local myths, legends and folklore. The tour commenced from Tulasi Women's College, and upon reaching Ghatagaon, the students and faculty members of the department visited the Tarini Temple to learn about the myths and legends associated with the goddess. Following that, the students travelled to Bhimkund to witness the beauty of Baitarani river. Everyone participated in a discussion of JibananandaDas' poem "Baitarani" (translated by Sonika Islam). Lastly, the students and staff members of the department visited Gundichaghai waterfall, and studied the role of environment, ecology, and nature in Romantic literature and. They also analysed Lauris Dorothy Edmund's poem "Waterfall". The study tour concluded at Tulasi Women's College in the evening. More than 20 students of the department of English attended the study tour. They were accompanied by the faculty members, Mrs. Pragyan Mohanty, Miss Gayatri Ray, Mr. Sakti Sekhar Dash and Miss Sushree Sangeeta Parida

