5. Brief Report of the Event:

A field study tour to Paradip Port, Maritime Museum at paradip, Bayana Gram, Maa Sarala Temple, and Baba Gorekhnath Temple was organized by the Department of Economics, Tulasi Women's College on 11.03.2022. A group of UG students belonging to the department under supervision of Mr. Nityasundar Manik, HOD and Mrs. Surita Mishra, Lecturer in Economics went on the tour with the objective of exposing students to the ground realities beyond stereotyped classroom teaching. While visiting to the premier port of East Coast of India port, the students got privileged to know the efficient and cost effective functioning of the port for transportation and commercial purposes. The visit to the Bayana Gram located in Jagatsinghpur district has become a great experience for the students. The students studied the socio-economic conditions of the village women skilled with weaving and knitting. They had a hands on experience in processes and technique of weaving, dying process, yarn preparation, thread binding for different designs. Lastly, the tour to temples has greatly impacted the students mentally, morally and spiritually. Overall, the field study tour was very delightful, exciting, educating and learning one.
