

Plantation Week

Organized by: NSS unit, Tulasi Women's College

Date: First week of July

Venue: Tulasi Women's College

The Plantation week was observed by the NSS Unit of Tulasi Women's College in the first week of July. On the occasion, staff members of the college and NSS volunteers led by the principal Dr. Pramilarani Behera planted saplings in the premises of the college to promote environmental awareness and contribute towards a greener campus.
